

A black and white photograph of a large lecture hall. The room is filled with students, mostly men, wearing white short-sleeved shirts. They are seated at long, dark wooden desks arranged in rows, facing the front of the room. In the foreground, the backs of several students' heads are visible as they look towards the front. At the front of the hall, a group of about eight people are standing behind a long table. One person on the left is gesturing with their hand while speaking. The room has a high ceiling and large windows or doors in the background. The overall atmosphere is that of a formal academic presentation or lecture.
